

RESUME

Michelle F. Cornell

685 Fairlawn Drive, Columbus Oh. 43214
614-784-0538 email csmithberger@Yahoo.com

CURRENT EMPLOYMENT

Storyteller

Greater Columbus Arts Council, Artists-in-Schools Program (www.gcac.org) 1999-2012

I perform assembly programs that are designed to introduce the art of storytelling to school groups in elementary and secondary schools. Each program is designed to enhance learning in the areas of language arts, social studies and natural science.

ArtsBridge Program of Ohio and West Virginia (www.artsbridgeonline.org) 2002-2012

These story programs target content standards in the area of language arts for elementary grades and are presented to school groups throughout Southeastern Ohio and Northern West Virginia.

Drama Teacher

Mad River Theater Works (www.madrivertheater.org) 2006-2012

I design and conduct drama residency workshops that dynamically integrate arts and core curriculum for elementary and high school students. These residencies combine oral history, research and play writing activities that result in one of a kind theatrical presentations.

Delaware County Arts Castle (www.artscastle.org) 2007-2012

These annual residency programs provide third and fifth graders of Delaware County Schools with hands on learning experiences in the visual and dramatic arts.

Columbus Children's Theatre (www.colschildrenstheatre.org) 1999-2012

I teach drama, theater skills and techniques to children 5-18 as a faculty member of CCT Academy.

PAST EMPLOYMENT

I have worked with outstanding theater and drama programs in Columbus and New York City. Most notably Partners in Play, The Davis Discovery Center and The Henry Street Settlement of lower Manhattan. Both programs served young people attending urban public schools and provided them with hands on learning experiences that integrated arts with core curriculum.

EDUCATION

BA The Evergreen State College 1977-1981

MFA Ohio University School of (Theatre/Directing) 1982-1985

MST (Masters/ Education) SUNY Plattsburgh 1993-1996

REFERENCES

Chris Westhoff, Managing Director Mad River Theater Works 937-456-6751

Mike Schirtzinger, Supervisor, Abby Theater 614-410-4554

Margaret Piatt, Professor Drama and Speech Urbana University 937- 465-8202